

AZLEADS³

Instructional Leadership Boot Camp (How to be an instructional supervisor who actually makes a difference.)

When: 2-day workshop
TBD

Where: TBD

Tentative Cost: $220.00 per participant
Districts and/or Schools that register 4+ or more people the cost is reduced to $200.00 per person.

Breakfast and Lunch will be provided daily.

All materials are included and will be provided.

Please register as soon as possible.

Go to www.azed.gov/azleads for more information or to register for the program.

Contact Information:

Chelsea Inmon (Program Coordinator)
Chelsea.inmon@azed.gov
602-364-2068

Sid Bailey (Program Director)
Sid.bailey@azed.gov
602-364-2067

INSTRUCTIONAL LEADERS BOOT CAMP

As a leader, is what you are doing making a difference in student achievement? If not, then what you are doing doesn't make a difference! This 2 day workshop offers instructional leaders tools and skills to diagnosis and dialogue with teachers around what you are observing in their classroom that promotes student achievement, and how best to help teachers improve their instructional skills.